

sugar cane industry, Seprod and their producers out in their sugar production operations – they are doing a lot of those things. In the tourism sector, we have a number of new interests coming in – Hyatt is purchasing. We are seeing Moon Palace out of Mexico coming in and starting operations in Jamaica in the tourism sector. So, we are seeing activity in that regard. And, of course, there has been significant investment by Chinese interests. Pan Caribbean sugar is part of the COMPLANT group out of China. China Harbor Engineering Company is also here and they are engaging in major infrastructure investment towards road construction currently and these are very positive developments that we are seeing.

BUSINESS VIEW: Talk about the next steps. What kind of indicators are there that people on the outside ought to look at to be able to stay “OK, things are headed in the right direction because this happened or because this goal was met, or this sign of
