

The Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of MMS is M. Audrey Stewart-Hinchcliffe, an International Health Management Specialist with a proven record of achievement in business administration and consultancy services. She is experienced in negotiating and administering a variety of service contracts for companies in Jamaica and the United States, and is an advisor to Caribbean governments on healthcare privatization of facilities maintenance services. She is also the chief contracts negotiator for the MMS group of companies which includes: Manpower and Maintenance Services Limited, Caribbean Health Management Consultants Limited, Manpower and Maintenance Services Placement Agency, and the Institute for Workforce Education and Development.

The MMS Placement Agency is an offshoot of Manpower & Maintenance Services, specializing in human resource services, including recruitment and placement of both temporary and permanent workers who are experienced, trained, and certified in a variety of skilled areas. The Agency is licensed by the Ministry of Labor and Social Security of Jamaica for both local and international placements. Some of the sectors it serves include: Home Management, Food Handling, Customer Service, Office Ad-

