

The resort has five different suite options: Garden Suites are spacious, split-level rooms with an open-plan bedroom and sitting room. Views are predominantly of the gardens, which are full of tropical foliage, with partial views of the turquoise Caribbean waters; Ocean Suites are located on the calm end of the beach. They are split-level and have an open-plan, bedroom-sitting room. They also have exceptional sea views, and have an uncluttered, luxury design; the newly created Bay Suites are ideal for couples - private butler service, a vodka & rum bar set up, and Temple Spa luxury bath products are just a few of the enhanced suite amenities; Beach Balcony and Beach Terrace Suites have a sitting area plus a separate study or second bedroom; and the large Carlisle Suites include three bedrooms and large private terraces, making them perfect for large groups or families.

All Carlisle Bay Resort suites include the following amenities:

- Day bed on every balcony and terrace
- Individually controlled air conditioning
- Ceiling fans
- Telephone with international direct dial
- Full HD LCD TV with satellite channels
- Docking station, DVD and CD players
- Complimentary Wi-Fi
- In-room safe
