

Budget Rent a Car Jamaica

Satisfying jamaica's car rental needs

For more than 30 years, Budget Rent a Car Jamaica has been satisfying the car rental needs of Jamaicans as well as the many international tourists who visit the island nation. Today, the company, an independent licensee of the Budget Corporation for the island of Jamaica, operates under the administration of the Tropic Island Trading Company LLC, which, in turn, is a subsidiary of its parent company, Stewart's Auto Sales Limited.

The Stewart family's automotive history in Jamaica goes back to 1938, when Stewart's Auto Supplies & Repairs was first founded by Lionel Arthur Stewart. By the 1950s, the company had evolved into Stewart's Auto Sales Limited, a dealer in British-made cars. Under continued family leadership, the company continued to expand over the next several decades, providing more services, selling more products, creating new companies, and acquiring more dealerships. Today, its brands include Suzuki, Mitsubishi, Mercedes-Benz, Fuso, Mercedes-Benz Commercial, Freightliner, JCB, Komatsu, Bobcat, Clark, MTU Onsite Energy, Allison,
