

Mango Bay

Winning awards for style and service

Barbados is a prime, island vacation destination, known to discriminating tourists, worldwide, for its clear blue waters, calm beaches, great hotels, and all-inclusive resorts. As one of the Caribbean's most economically developed islands, Barbados often attracts many affluent travelers looking to spend their vacations enjoying not only the island's natural bounties, but also its fine restaurants, elegant shops, and lively nightlife.

One award-winning resort that caters to all of the vacation needs of its discerning clientele is the Mango Bay Hotel and Beach Club (now known as Mango Bay), situated on the island's western shore and close to the site where the British first landed in 1621. While the property's tranquil beachfront is perfect for sun-kissed relaxation, the resort is also within walking distance of the many shops, bars, and restaurants of Holetown. It is also 25 minutes from the capital city of Bridgetown,
